Hello All,

In order to ensure that all employees in all offices are prepared to issue the election certificates if the Department is given the go ahead, Lynn and I would like to schedule a Webex for Tues. June 25th at 3:00 p.m. (CST) for all facilitators. We will be reviewing the election certificate training documents. Please alert your immediate supervisor about this session.

We've attached the documents with this email and ask that you take time to review them before the presentation and be prepared to share your questions (those not covered in the training documents) upon the conclusion of the training.

All supervisors were given training last Friday and if you participated in that session it will not be necessary for you to attend Tuesday's session.

The WebEx invitation will be sent tomorrow morning.

Thanks all.

Bob
